

List of Activities not to be Financed

The Company, to the best of its knowledge, undertakes not to provide support to the activities listed below and to the companies carrying out those activities:

- Activities involving the dangerous and exploitative forms of forced labor<sup>1</sup> / child employment<sup>2</sup> and acts and conducts violating the human rights.
- Any project that restricts individuals' personal rights or violates human rights.
- Production of weapons of mass destruction and land mines.
- Production and / or trade of any product or activity prohibited pursuant to the national legislation and international agreements to which Turkey is a party, such as:
  - a) Production or trade of products which contain PCB<sup>3</sup> (Polychlorinated Biphenyl),
  - b) Production and trade of drugs, pesticides, herbicides and other hazardous substances which are internationally prohibited pursuant to international agreements (Rotterdam Convention, Stockholm Convention)<sup>4</sup>
  - c) Production and trade of substances/materials that damage the ozone layer, which are internationally prohibited pursuant to international agreements (Montreal Protocol)<sup>5</sup>
  - d) Production, commercial use, storage, transport and trade of the products containing unbonded asbestos fiber.
- Cross-border trade of waste and waste products prohibited by Turkish or international laws.
- Activities that are carried out in wetlands that are identified as RAMSAR Zones (Wetlands of International Importance).
- Activities which threaten the cultural heritage qualities of the places included in UNESCO World Heritage List and activities involving significant change, damage or eradication of significant cultural heritages / disputes with respect to significant cultural heritages
- Wild life trade, production or trade of wild life elements and products governed by CITES Agreement (Convention on the International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Flora and Fauna)
- Activities which are related with pornography or prostitution.
- Transportation of oil and other hazardous substances via tankers that do not comply with the requirements of International Maritime Organization (IMO, MASPOL, SOLAS and MOU).
- Production or trade of radioactive products (other than the circumstances where the use of medical equipment, quality control devices and radioactive substances extremely limited or where adequate level of protection is provided)

---

(1) Forced labor refers to works and services where the persons are not employed voluntarily and which are performed by a person with the use of force or threat of punishment.

(2) Forced Child Labor refers to the works where the children are economically exploited and which damages to the education, health, physical, mental, spiritual, moral and social development of the children.

(3) PCB: Polycarbonated Biphenyls are composed of toxic chemicals. They probably exist in oiled electric transformers, capacitors and switchgears, the production of which particularly dates back to years 1950-1985.

(4) <http://www.who.int> and <http://www.pic.int>

(5) Ozone Depleting Substances (ODS): Chemical compounds which react with ozone stratospheric.
<http://www.unep.org/ozone/montreal.shtml>

(6) Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes and their Disposal, <http://www.basel.int>.

(7) Tankers prohibited by International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships (MARPOL), International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS) (including but not limited to these) Compliance with International Safety Management Code, Memorandum of Understanding on Port State Control (Paris MOU) and tankers above 25 years of age cannot be used as per 13G of MARPOL Regulation.

<http://www.imo.org/About/Conventions/ListOfConventions/Pages/International-Convention-for-thePrevention-of-Pollution-from-Ships-%28MARPOL%29.aspx>.